

KAISERLICHES/

IMPERIAL

PATENT OFFICE

PATENT SPECIFICATION ISSUED NOVEMBER 12, 1906

No. 179607
Class 21 d. Group 26

SOCIETÉ ANONYME WESTINGHOUSE and RAOUL BRUN
in LE HAVRE, FRANCE

Circuit for an electrical motor with mixed windings
coil and a coupled auxiliary machine
Patented in the German empire starting March 2. 1905

PATENT CLAIM:

Circuit for an electric motor with mixed windings and a coupled auxiliary machine whose anchor is connected behind the bypass coil of the motor. It is thereby characterized that the main current of the motor flows through the field magnet of the auxiliary machine.